Role Overview

As a Business Analytics & Technology Innovation Intern, you will support Saraswati Sales / Anaya Bree in improving internal reporting, business visibility, operational efficiency, and digital workflows through data analysis, dashboarding, automation, and practical technology adoption.

Technology Innovation Objective

The objective of this internship is to assist the company in identifying and implementing practical technology-driven improvements across sales reporting, inventory tracking, distributor coordination, customer data management, operational dashboards, and workflow automation. You may use tools such as Excel, Power BI, Python, SQL/MySQL, and AI-assisted reporting methods where suitable and approved by the reporting manager.

Scope of Work and Responsibilities

- Analyse sales, distributor, customer, product, inventory, payment, and operational data to identify trends, gaps, and business opportunities.
- Create and maintain MIS reports, KPI trackers, dashboards, and management reporting formats.
- Use Excel, Power BI, Python, Pandas, SQL/MySQL, and other relevant tools for data cleaning, structuring, analysis, and reporting where required.
- Assist in automating repetitive reporting and follow-up tasks such as order updates, stock reports, distributor follow-ups, payment reminders, and internal communication workflows.

- Support technology-enabled solutions for inventory planning, demand analysis, sales tracking, and operational decision-making.
- Research and recommend practical AI, automation, or analytics tools that may improve productivity and reduce manual work.
- Document reports, dashboards, automation workflows, data formats, and process improvements for future company use.

Skills to Be Applied During Internship

Python, Pandas, NumPy, SQL/MySQL, Microsoft Excel, Power BI, data cleaning, MIS reporting, KPI tracking, dashboard development, sales analysis, distributor/customer analysis, inventory analysis, process automation, AI-assisted analytics, business reporting, documentation, communication, problem-solving, and stakeholder coordination.

Internship Deliverables

During the internship, you may be required to prepare and submit reports, dashboards, analysis files, automation workflows, MIS formats, documentation, and process improvement recommendations as assigned by the reporting manager. All deliverables created during the internship shall remain the property of Saraswati Sales / Anaya Bree and may be used by the company for internal business purposes.

Attendance and Conduct

You are expected to follow the working hours, attendance requirements, workplace discipline, and professional conduct standards communicated by the company. Any leave or absence during the internship period shall require prior approval from the reporting manager.

Confidentiality and Company Property

You shall maintain strict confidentiality of all non-public company information, including customer data, distributor data, pricing information, product records, financial information, reports, scripts, dashboards, business processes, internal communications, and any other company-related information accessed during the internship. Any work, files, code, reports, dashboards, documents, process notes, automation systems, or other materials created during the internship shall remain the property of Saraswati Sales / Anaya Bree and shall not be copied, shared, published, reused, or transferred outside the company without prior written permission.

Termination

Saraswati Sales reserves the right to discontinue the internship in case of misconduct, non-performance, irregular attendance, breach of confidentiality, misuse of company information, or violation of company policies. The intern may also discontinue the internship by providing prior written notice of 7 days to the company.

Completion Certificate

Upon successful completion of the internship period and satisfactory submission of assigned work, the intern may be issued an internship completion certificate by the company. Issuance of the certificate shall be subject to attendance, conduct, performance, and completion of assigned responsibilities.

No Employment Commitment

This internship offer does not constitute an offer of permanent employment. Any future employment, extension, or association with the company shall be subject to company requirements, performance review, and separate written communication.

Please sign and return a copy of this letter as confirmation of your acceptance of the internship offer and the terms stated above.

Future Opportunity

Based on the intern's performance, attendance, conduct, quality of work, and the company's business requirements, Saraswati Sales / Anaya Bree may consider offering an extension, continued association, or future employment opportunity, subject to management approval and separate written communication
